IMPACT AWARDS

VANCOUVER, B.C. June 13, 2024

BC Tech is proud to announce the 38 finalists across 9 Technology Impact Award categories who achieved exceptional success in the past year.

The Company of the Year Anchor category was a highlight of the evening, with five impressive local anchors honoured as finalists. “Blakes is proud to support B.C.’s startups, scale-ups and anchors with the legal solutions they need to keep pushing the boundaries,” shared Emma Costante, Partner at Blakes, “As a sponsor of the Technology Impact Awards, we celebrate the success of local innovators.”

The finalists for Company of the Year – Startup, were announced earlier in May after an evening of live pitches presented by Electronic Arts. “At EA, we are proud to sponsor the Technology Impact Awards, recognizing the crucial role start-ups play in driving innovation and creating new value.” shared Dan Box, VP/GM EA Ventures, “By supporting these emerging companies, we aim to foster technological advancements that align with our vision and enhance the future of interactive entertainment.”

The finalists for the remaining 8 categories were announced in downtown Vancouver at FUNK Coffee at Bentall Centre. “Bentall Centre is proud to once again host the 2024 Technology Impact Awards and support the important work BC Tech does to ensure the region remains a hub for tech innovation,” said David Haugen, Senior Director of Leasing at Hudson Pacific Properties.

Winners in each category will be announced at the TIAs gala to be held on October 23, 2024 at Parq Vancouver.

“The Technology Impact Awards recognize the very best companies in BC and the accomplishments of the leaders and teams in the BC economy’s fastest growing sector.”
shared Rich Osborn, Chair of the BC Tech Board, “It is impossible to over-state the importance of technology and innovation to a thriving economy.”
